Advertising Summary

Shenandoah County Parks and Recreation offers year-round recreational and cultural programming. Three times a year, the department prints its recreation brochure highlighting all of the activities taking place for that season. The brochure provides information about activities for all ages and abilities, including sports programs, educational classes, seasoned citizen programs (55+), bus trips and more for all ages.

Advertising with SCPR is a great opportunity for your business to highlight special sales, recreational activities, seasonal merchandise, special opportunities or events, and more.

The appropriate format to submit your ads to us, camera-ready (black & white or color), is a TIFF or JPG file. We will accept PDF files as well. Please be sure that your resolution is set for a minimum of 300 dpi.

- The brochure is 8 ¼" x 10 7/8"
- The brochure is designed and edited in-house and then sent to the printer as a camera-ready document.
- Mailed to every household located in Shenandoah County via an ECRWSS Zip Pre-Sort saturation delivery process. Distribution levels are currently at 18,100.
- Each seasonal edition has an average shelf life of five months.
- A yearly contract must begin with WINTER/SPRING edition, includes SUMMER and FALL/WINTER.

Billing & Contract Information

Each business will be invoiced individually for each ad. Invoices will be sent after brochure is mailed for each respective season. Each ad requires an advertising contract. All proofing will be done via email or fax; be sure to provide this contact information on your contract. A written acceptance (fax or email) will be required by the noted deadline or the ad will be pulled from the brochure. Shenandoah County Parks and Recreation will not be liable for any advertising errors once an advertiser has signed off on the ad.

For more information or to discuss your special advertising needs, contact Jered Hoover, Director.
