Directors Report

95% of the Ash trees at the County park in Maurertown has been removed, close to 80 trees in total. There was no cost for the removal of them. The new paved walking trail is being utilized quite a bit.

Nothing new on the Keister Park.

Wagoner Park is still in a lawsuit and can't move forward until that has ended.

Field #1 retaining wall is set to start in March.

Bio-Retention grant of $140,000 from the Town of Woodstock will be used behind the Maintenance Shed at the County Park.

Activities/Programs

Look for a busy season as usual

Color Run date has been change to June 6 to avoid a conflict with the Woodstock Police safety day held at WWR

We have collaborated with the American Cancer Society on the Color Run.

PASS is a new program that Teresa Funkhouser has created that is held at the Woodstock Moose on the next Tuesday of every month. They usually have a speaker or some kind of entertainment. It cost $5 and that does include lunch. Moose provides 30 free meals and any over that number we pay.

KidzRec is going strong

Trips going strong

Rhine River cruise went great and came back with everyone

FY'21 budget is still being tweaked. We have asked for a new Smithco to work up ball fields.

LSC, who has been printing our Rec Guide for 6 or so years has closed and our new printer will be Winchester Printers

Summer brochure work will start in March and brochure will hit the mail the last week of April.
